Farmers and Hunters
 Feeding the Hungry

FHFH is a mission organization enabling hunters and landowners to feed their hungry neighbors. Deer, elk and livestock are donated to inspected, approved butcher shops that participate with the program. The meat is then distributed to local food banks, soup kitchens, homeless shelters and other feeding ministries. FHFH raises financial support to pay the meat processing bills so that hunters, farmers and feeding programs can participate free of charge.

FHFH has several coordinators and butcher shops throughout Central Ohio including:

- Licking County - 111 Franklin Avenue, Newark
 Coordinator: Matthew Gayheart – 740-334-7256
- Knox County - 218 Cambridge Road, Coshocton
 Coordinator: Dewey Thompson – 740-623-0859
