

Casual 2-1-1 Crisis/Hotline Response Specialists Needed

Pathways of Central Ohio seeks casual 2-1-1 Crisis/Hotline Response Specialists for its Crisis/Hotline and Information Center. The hours for this position vary depending on agency needs. The 2-1-1 Crisis/Hotline operates 24/7/365 with three shifts (8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., 4:00 p.m. to 12 midnight, and 12 midnight to 8:00 a.m.) The 2-1-1/Crisis Hotline currently serves Licking, Knox, Muskingum, Perry, Morgan, Marion, Pickaway, and Washington Counties 24/7 and Richland County after hours.

Job Description

The 2-1-1 Crisis/Hotline Crisis Response Specialist's (CRS) primary responsibilities involve responding to callers or two-way text contacts with information and referral and crisis management services. Crisis response specialists also follow-up with callers/contacts in vulnerable or dangerous situations, advocate for callers/contacts in need of services, provide disaster response services, and maintain confidentiality of callers/contacts. The Crisis Response Specialist enters data and searches for resources in a web-based data base.

All potential staff members must successfully complete 50 hours of training before hiring. Training is unpaid however, if the staff member stays with Pathways for six months and completes 520 hours of work, then a $500 bonus is awarded. During training, potential staff members learn the Crisis Intervention Model, how to handle a variety of calls (both information and referral and crisis) and how to use the ReferNET and PreventionPays texting software. This training is beneficial to anyone working in social services or crisis situations.
